IBEW/NECA ELECTRICAL CONNECTION

"The IBEW/NECA Electrical Connection partnership's enduring support of Habitat for Humanity Saint Louis advances our commitment to strengthening our hometown. Our contractors, electricians and communication technicians embrace the Habitat mission that energizes the vitality of our neighborhoods by broadening opportunities for home ownership." -- Timothy Green

TRANE TECHNOLOGIES

"Our partnership with Habitat for Humanity Saint Louis over the last few years has been a great experience our employees. Volunteerism is where the heart of Trane Technologies is on full display. We enjoy a culture that actively supports volunteerism, and a workforce that enthusiastically embraces it. Habitat was a great fit for us not only for volunteering but also for showcasing how Trane Technologies creates comfortable energy efficient indoor environments." -- Ron Stogsdill

STRATUM STRUCTURAL SYSTEMS

"Stratum was proud to partner with Habitat for Humanity through our Pass The Torch community outreach program after receiving the 2022 Better Business Bureau's Torch Award for ethics and customer service. Through Pass The Torch, Stratum worked with Habitat to build new homes for deserving but under-resourced families in our community." -Matt Ford
